Escaped Huber Inmate Alissa A Leeman

The Dodge County Sheriff's Office is seeking help from the public to locate inmate Alissa A Leeman, 30 years old, with a last known address in Green Bay. She is an inmate in the Dodge County Jail with court-ordered Huber privileges, which allow certain inmates to leave the facility for work and medical appointments.

On Tuesday, March 4, 2025, Alissa Leeman left our facility to go to her place of employment in Horicon. She left work early to go to Walgreens in Beaver Dam and was last known to be at the Super 8 hotel in Beaver Dam around 3:30 p.m. on March 4. She was last seen wearing a heavy gray jacket, blue jeans, white shoes, and a gray knit cap. She was scheduled to return to the Dodge County Jail by 4:45 p.m. and has not yet returned.

If anyone has information about where she may be or has recently been, please contact the Dodge County Sheriff's Office non-emergency number 920-386-3726. You may also contact us through our app and website. Deputies are actively trying to locate her.
